CAN NOT ACCEDE TO GOVERNOR'S REQUEST

C. W. McGEE CANNOT FILL OFFICE UNTIL SEPT.

TO QUIT JULY 1ST

County Treasurer Wrote Governor Yesterday That He Would Have To Give Up Duties

(From Saturday's Daily.)
Following receipt of Governor Blease's letter, in which the chief executive asked that he consent to fill the office of county treasurer until September 1, instead of July 1, the date named in his resignation, County Treasurer McGee took the matter under advisement but decided that he could not accede to the Governor's request and wrote to Columbia yesterday in which he stated that fact. When he received Governor Blease's letter asking that he continue to fill the office during July and August Mr. McGee said that he would be very happy to do so if he could, but he conferred with the institution where he is to accept a position and found from them that his services would be in demand by July 1. He accordingly informed the Governor of his decision.

This means that the Governor will appoint some one, before July 1, to fill Mr. McGee's unexpired term and it seems that there are to be a number of candidates for the office. Yesterday a number of applicants were mentioned and there were several petitions being circulated over the city, praying the Governor to appoint W. A. Elrod of West Pelzer to the office. As soon as a sufficient number of signers have been secured Mr. Elrod will forward this petition to Columbia.

Mr. Elrod formerly lived at Piercetown and worked for Mr. McGee in the treasurer's office during his first year in that position.

CLEMSON COLLEGE HAS ENDED GREATEST YEAR IN ITS HISTORY

Commencement Exercises Will Be Held Sunday, Monday and Tuesday—Program For the Concluding Exercises—Dr. Riggs Has Secured Funds for College From Lever Bill

(Special Correspondence.)
Clemson, June 5. Everything at Clemson is getting ready for commencement. The examinations are over and the year that is closing is the most successful from an academic standpoint in the history of the college. There has been nothing to excite the cadets, and they have had a year of steady and progressive study.

The examination papers show the success of the work of the instructors.

The graduating class this year is a fine body of young men. They have been working for weeks on these, and the results show the practicality of the course of training at Clemson.

Dr. W. M. Riggs, president, has returned from a trip to Washington, where he made arrangements for Clemson to share in the fund put aside by congress under the Lever bill to assist the technical colleges of the country, especially the agricultural colleges of the South. Dr. Riggs found Gov. Blease ready to cooperate with him in every way in getting a share of the fund for South Carolina, for the law required the approval of the governor of a state.

Dr. Riggs is somewhat piqued at the notion some people have that Clemson college is wading knee deep in money. He says that the academic part of the institution, or the college itself, gets less per capita for students than any other college in the state. There are conducted in the name of Clemson so many agricultural experiments and extensions, not only on college property but all through the state, that the college gets but a portion of the funds coming to the institution. He has set this forth early in an article to be published in a subsequent issue of The Intelligencer.

Clemson does not begrudge the money spent on experiment farms and in diversified agricultural development. For Dr. Riggs stated that he knows of no investment made by the state that has shown a stronger return from a financial standpoint.

Commencement Program.
Commencement exercises at Clemson college will be inaugurated Sunday with the baccalaureate sermon in the morning by Rev. K. G. Finlay of Columbia, former rector of the Episcopal church at Clemson. The annual sermon to the Y. M. C. A. will be preached Sunday night.

The graduating exercises being held Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Anderson people have a cordial invitation to attend all of the exercises at Clemson college during the commencement, for this college is almost on Anderson soil and will be some day—and Anderson has given to Clemson a larger number of her sons than any other county. MARRIAGE CEREMONY TO HELP HIS BUSINESS

ANDERSON PEOPLE SEE NEW USE FOR A WIFE

FOR ADVERTISING

Newcomer Will Be Married In Anderson As Soon as Bride Arrives and Many Invited

(From Saturday's Daily.)
There are many uses for a marriage ceremony and there are many ways for a ceremony to be performed but using the ceremony as an advertisement for the purpose of building up a new business is something heretofore unheard of in Anderson. Such is said to be the case of a young man, H. S. Helms of Tampa, Fla. recently purchased the grocery business of F. M. Cason at 720 North Fant street and has arranged to take charge of the business. However, knowing that it pays to advertise, Mr. Helms is planning to get into the good graces of all his customers along North Fant street by inviting them to his wedding and accordingly he spent part of yesterday going along North Fant street and asking his customers to be present without fail at his wedding which ceremony is to be held as soon as the bride can get here from Tampa.

She is to be accompanied to Anderson by the groom's brother and will arrive either Monday or Tuesday and the wedding will then be solemnized in the Christian Church, as soon as she arrives. When that important function is performed, in the presence of all the grocery consumers along North Fant street, both Mr. and Mrs. Helms will be well known people and the new store will doubtless get many an order for the family's supply of week's groceries.

THE "PRUDENT MAN" WILL BE WARE OF SMOOTH STRANGERS WITH NICE SEEMING SCHEMES

If all of these schemes which "Smooth" strangers come around to peddle are such great "Money Makers" why don't they KEEP them themselves?
When a man is trying hard to sell you a proposition there is something in it for HIM—that's a sure thing.
Is it not better for us all to keep our money here at home, invest in and build up OUR OWN Community?
The man who does this is prosperous.

LOCAL MILITIA FAVORS THE ISLE

Capt. Ligon Wired Advice To Effect After Interviewing Members and Officers

(From Saturday's Daily.)
Capt. Louis Ligon of the Palmetto Rifles yesterday received a telegram from Col. W. W. Lewis of Yorkville asking the opinion of the local militia on the question of where the State Militia should go into encampment this summer. It was once understood that all of the Ninth division would encamp at the Isle of Palms, Charleston, and then later it was understood that the division maneuvers would take place at Augusta. Finally it was announced that they would be held in South Carolina.

After receiving the message yesterday Capt. Ligon interviewed the officers of the Palmetto Rifles and as many of the members of the company as possible as to their choice in the matter and it was unanimously agreed by the Rifles that they would prefer the Isle of Palms. Capt. Ligon accordingly wired to Col. Lewis that the Anderson militia would rather go to Charleston than any other place in the State.

It is said that regular troops will be detailed from the United States Army to have charge of the maneuvers and to instruct the National Guard in military tactics, provided the Mexican situation does not become so acute that the service will all be in demand. It is understood that the troops will first be detailed to North Carolina, next to South Carolina, then to Georgia and on to Florida.

The Palmetto Rifles are enthusiastic over the prospect of the encampment being held at Charleston and are anxious for the order to be issued.

REASONS FOR THE GREAT FIRE LOSS

Insurance Adjuster Explained Why Anderson Is Negligent in Letting Her Buildings Burn

George Harrington, insurance adjuster yesterday made a number of interesting comments on why Anderson suffered as many fire losses as is the case and at the same time he explained why the Glenn street school building suffered as great damage a few nights ago as it did. Mr. Harrington said that the fire loss could have been cut in half had the builders and the trustees done the right thing in its construction.

He explained at some length that a portion of one wall was entirely open, thus permitting the burning particles to fall through from the top floor to the cellar, when $20 more in brick would have prevented this and saved the lower half of the building.

Mr. Harrington explained that the portion of the wall left open is ordered closed in these towns where there is a building ordinance and he said that he was surprised to find that Anderson has no building code or building commissioner. Had there been such an official, according to Mr. Harrington, there might have been no such loss as occurred here when the school went up in smoke.

Mr. Harrington has been in Anderson for two days in his capacity of adjuster for the Germania Fire Insurance Company, which company carried $4,000 insurance on the burned building.

THE GARRISON FLAG

Night Have Been Found, But Was Never Captured

Editor of The Anderson Intelligencer:
In your issue of May 29th, among the Confederate flags to be returned mention is made of the Garrison flag of Fort Moultrie, Charleston harbor, captured February 18, 1865.

Fort Moultrie was never captured. A land assault was made on it and no flag was ever captured there, our fighting being with heavy ordnance across the water.

A flag may have been found there or it is possible that as an act of defiance our flag was left flying when we evacuated the fort. I cannot now remember.

At the time of the evacuation and for some time before I commanded Company "D", which manned the guns (an 8-inch rifle and 24-pound Columbiad) on each side of the flag staff at Fort Moultrie.

Mr. S. O. Bruce of this county, who walked with me in the parade on May 28th, was a member of Company "D", which was also at Fort Moultrie at the time of the evacuation. Every veteran will understand the difference between "losing" and "capturing" a flag.

BOYS TO GO ON A CAMPING TRIP

Anderson Lads Will Spend Month On French Broad River In Mountains of N. C.

(From Saturday's Daily.)
Nothing more delightful could be imagined for a set of healthy boys than a month's stay in the beautiful mountains of North Carolina and the Frazer School has just made arrangements by which a number of its students will be given that very pleasant outing this summer. Prof. B. M. Parks, who has been a member of the faculty of the Frazer school and will next year be principal of the institution, is an associate director of the French Broad Camp and he is now making arrangements for carrying a number of boys to the camp for a stay of almost two months.

This camp is located near Brevard, N. C., and is for recreation and for study. It lasts from July 1 to August 26 and will give all the boys attending a chance to learn a great deal about nature, as well as books, and at the same time they will have the benefit of expert supervision. The board of directors of this camp will be composed of some of the foremost instructors of South Carolina, for the most part members of the Citadel faculty and every boy taking part in the trip will be improved thereby.

Mr. Parks said last night that this expedition was to take the place of that conducted by Dr. Frazer last year for his boys from Anderson to New York and other northern cities and he says that the boys going to French Broad camp will have equally as good time as did those going with Dr. Frazer last year. A considerable number yesterday signed up for the trip and it is expected that today will bring still more.

MISSIONARY MEET CLOSED SESSION

All Attendants Delighted With the Work Done During Three Days Session

(From Saturday's Daily.)
Everyone of those in attendance at the first meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Saluda Baptist Association said yesterday, after the adjournment of the Association, that they were pleased with what had been accomplished and they all felt that the meeting had been a great success.

This association has been in session with Anderson college since last Wednesday and the all-day sessions have resulted in much good for those who attended yesterday's sessions have resulted in much good for those who attended. Yesterday's sessions were all interesting and instructive. Prof. C. M. Fattall of Anderson college took a prominent part in the day's program, as did Mrs. R. L. Sanders, Mrs. A. L. Smothers and Mrs. E. W. Mantor.

It is highly probable that the association will meet each year after this and those who have been here for these three days say that it must undoubtedly be productive of much good in Anderson county. There were many helpful hints concerning Sunday School work picked up by those here during the session just closed and even better will be the many features of the program next year.

J. E. Reeco has resigned his position at the Judges Mill, Greenville, and returned to his former position as second hand in spinners at the Bever Dam Mills, Edgefield.
